

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

HELP US FUEL TOMORROW'S GAME CHANGERS

We are a collective of original thinkers and makers driven by creating innovative solutions to challenging business problems. We believe in co-creation, building industry-changing ideas in an open and collaborative culture, supercharging the futures of the brands, clients and talent we work with.

Your Role

Supercharge your future!

We are looking for an enthusiastic Account Executive to join our team and be part of an open, dynamic environment, enriched by creatives across different disciplines, helping manage a portfolio of global brands. You will be a team player for key projects, across a broad range of comms channels that vary in terms of depth and scope.

You will need to be a good communicator: collaborative and organised with a willingness to keep learning and develop your skills. Ideally, you are interested in all things digital and you'll be all over the small details that can make a difference to our clients.

Ideally, we are looking for a demonstration of experience in marketing and a track record of being a team player.

Account and client-facing responsibilities include:

- Supporting the team with project and financial management
- Project planning
- Involvement in the creative and design process
- Overseeing faultless client delivery

You will be self-motivated and ambitious to grow your role.
